Privacy Policy

I. Information Obligation According to Data Protection Regulation

By registering for our swimming school event, we collect personal data, including special categories of data (§3 para. 9 BDSG), which are essential for fulfilling contractual obligations or carrying out pre-contractual measures.

Article 6 para. 1b GDPR: We process your data for the initiation, conclusion, execution, and termination of a contract with you.

Based on legitimate interest (Article 6 para. 1f GDPR): Where necessary, we process your personal data beyond the fulfillment of legal or contractual obligations to protect legitimate interests.

Our employees have access to your data only to the extent necessary for fulfilling legal or contractual obligations. Data will not be shared with third parties unless required for contract fulfillment, e.g., with commissioned third parties.

Your personal data will be processed and stored as long as necessary to fulfill contractual and legal obligations. Once no longer required for these purposes, the data will be deleted.

Your Rights: You have the right to request information about the personal data we store about you and to request correction, restriction, or deletion of such data. You can revoke any given consent at any time with future effect. You have the right to object to the use of your data for direct marketing purposes at any time. The objection can be made informally via phone, in writing, or electronically. Additionally, you have the right to file a complaint with the Saxon supervisory authority. There is no transfer of data to third countries.

II. Voluntary Information (Photo and Video Recordings)

We respect your privacy and handle personal data with strict confidentiality. Consent to photography/video recording is voluntary and can be revoked at any time.

In this case, please ask for the corresponding form.
